

JBD and Kollel Menachem are pleased to present an innovative new program

Kollel in the CBD

For one full day, the Kollel will transplant itself into the CBD, and give workers a unique opportunity to engage with them at various times during the day, and get a taste of Torah study at a variety of levels and disciplines.

Wednesday 31st October 2012

The day will be broken up into 30 minute “micro-shiur” slots allowing you to book one-on-one time with a kollel member for study on a variety of topics. To make a booking, visit <http://www.kollelmenachem.com.au/cbd>

In addition, the following scheduled events will take place:

8:00am shacharit followed by breakfast

9:00am daf yomi shiur (35 mins)

12:30pm lunch with a keynote address: “Jewish Competition Law”
followed by 1.45pm mincha

5:00pm ‘happy hour’ - come in for an after-work drink and farbrengen

ether conference centre
lower ground level – Mercure Grand Hotel
195 Swanston St

Hosted and sponsored by the Erdi Group

For further information, contact Rabbi.Johnson@yeshivahcentre.org or admin@jbd.org.au

Kollel Menachem Lubavitch is an institute for advanced Judaic studies and community outreach. It is staffed by a team of young Rabbinic scholars and their Rosh Kollel who spend a portion of each day in advanced studies among themselves while devoting a significant amount of time teaching and giving public and individual Torah lessons.